A California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation

BYLAWS

ARTICLE 1 PURPOSES

1.1 General Purpose. Artseed is chartered as a nonprofit public benefit corporation as set forth by the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law (the “CNCL”), exclusively for charitable and public purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

1.2 Specific Purpose. The corporation aims to improve lives and revitalize the arts by conceiving, developing and nurturing “art as education” projects that stimulate and grow into mutually supportive, long-term relationships. The goal is to connect people of all ages and backgrounds and explore new opportunities for them to grasp, utilize and transform the arts. It has a non-discriminatory policy and therefore does not discriminate against applicants and students on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, age, sexual orientation or income status.

ARTICLE 2 OFFICES

The corporation's principal office shall be fixed and located at such place in the County of San Francisco, State of California, as the Board of Directors shall determine. The Board is granted full authority to change said principal office from one location to another within such County. The Board of Directors may at any time establish branch or subordinate offices at any place or places for the corporation to conduct its activities.

ARTICLE 3 MEMBERSHIP

The corporation shall have no members with voting privileges. Contributors to the corporation, or others, may from time to time be referred to as “Members”, but all legal rights and privileges will be vested in the Directors.

ARTICLE 4 BOARD OF DIRECTORS

4.1 General Powers. Subject to the applicable provisions of the CNCL and any limitation in the Articles of Incorporation and in these Bylaws, the corporation’s activities and affairs shall be conducted, and all corporate powers shall be exercised, by or under the direction of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may delegate the management of the activities of this corporation to any person or persons, management company, or committee however composed, provided that the activities and affairs of this corporation shall be managed and all corporate powers shall be exercised under the ultimate direction of the Board of Directors.

4.2 Role. The Board of Directors shall be responsible for the financial well-being of the corporation. Its primary function, in this respect, is to assist in the raising of funds to carry out the corporation's programs. This is done by securing the personal financial support of directors, and in conjunction with the corporation's officers, soliciting gifts and endowments, institutional grants and public appropriations.

4.3 Number of Directors. The Board of Directors shall consist of not less than two (2) nor more than forty (40) members. The exact authorized number of directors shall be fixed from time to time, within the limits specified in this section or in the Articles of Incorporation, by the Board of Directors. Subject to the foregoing provisions, the authorized number of directors of this corporation shall be five (5).

4.4 Qualification. So long as required by law, not more than forty-nine percent (49%) of the persons serving the Board of Directors of this corporation may be "interested persons" as defined by the CNCL (presently section 5227)<sup>1</sup>. Directors must possess the desire and commitment to further the corporation's purpose.

4.5 Election. Directors shall be elected by the sitting Board at a regular annual meeting of the directors or in any other manner authorized by law. In any election of directors the candidates receiving the highest number of votes are elected. Elections for directors need not be by ballot unless a director demands election by ballot at the meeting and before the voting begins. Each director shall cast one vote for each office or director to be filled. Directors shall also select a Chairperson to lead the Board of Directors and be its official representative.

4.6 Conflicts of Interest. Upon acceptance of election as a director, any director who has financial interest which might affect the director's votes on the corporation's business, shall identify the nature of the interest. Any director having a conflict of interest with respect to any item of business to be voted upon shall state the nature of the possible conflict and refrain from voting. Any director, who is uncertain whether a conflict of interest may exist in any

“(1) Any person currently being compensated by the corporation for services rendered to it within the previous 12 months, whether as a full-or part-time employee, independent contractor, or otherwise, excluding any reasonable compensation paid to a director as a director; or

(2) Any brother, sister, ancestor, descendent, spouse, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, mother-in-law, or father-in-law of any such person.”

matter, may request the Board of Directors to resolve the question by majority vote. The vote of any director failing to declare a conflict may be challenged immediately after the vote is taken and the existence or non-existence of the conflict shall be resolved by a vote of a majority of the directors present other than the challenged and challenging directors.

4.7 Term. Directors elected shall hold office 2 consecutive years. Each director, including a director elected to fill a vacancy, shall hold office until his or her successor is elected, except as otherwise provided by law.

4.8 Compensation. Directors shall serve without compensation except that they may be allowed and paid their actual and necessary expenses of attendance at each regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors or any of its committees, but subject to the restrictions of Section 4.4 of these Bylaws, nothing contained in this section shall be construed to preclude any director from serving this corporation in any other capacity and receiving just a reasonable compensation thereof.

4.9 No interest in Assets. No director shall possess any property right in or to the property of this corporation. In the event this corporation owns or holds any property upon dissolution and winding up, after paying or adequately providing for its debts and obligations, the directors shall dispose of the remaining property in accordance with the Articles of Incorporation.

4.10 Removal. A vacancy or vacancies on the Board of Directors shall exist on the occurrence of the following: (a) the death, resignation or removal of any director; (b) the declaration by resolution of the Board of Directors of a vacancy in the office of a director who has been declared of unsound mind by an order of court, convicted of a felony, or found by final order or judgment of any court to have breached a duty under Article 3 of Chapter 2 of the CNCL; (c) the vote of the majority of all directors; or (e) the failure of the directors, at any meeting of the board of directors at which any director or directors are to be elected, to elect the number of directors required to be elected at such meeting.

4.11 Resignations. Any director may resign by giving written notice to the Chairman, if any, or to the Executive Director or the Secretary of the Board of Directors. The resignation shall be effective when the notice is given unless it specifies a later time for the resignation to become effective. If a director's resignation is effective later, the board may elect a successor to take office as of the date when the resignation becomes effective. Except on notice to the Attorney General of California, no director may resign if the corporation would be left without a duly elected director or directors.

4.12 Filling Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring on the Board of Directors as well as any directorship to be filled by reason of an increase in the number of directors shall be filled by approval of the Board of Directors or, if the number of directors then in office is less than a quorum, by (1) the unanimous written consent of the directors then in office (2) the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office at a meeting held pursuant to notice or waivers of notice complying with this Article of these Bylaws, or (3) a sole remaining director. A director elected to fill a vacancy as provided by this Section shall hold office during the unexpired term of his or her predecessors in office and until his or her successor is elected.

ARTICLE 5
BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETINGS

5.1 Regular Meetings. The Board of Directors may fix by resolution the time and place, either within or outside California, for the holding of regular meetings, including the regular annual meeting of the Board of Directors, without other notice than such resolution. Notice of any change in the time or place of regular meetings shall be given to all of the directors in the same manner as notice for special meetings of the Board of Directors.

5.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors for any purpose may be called by the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the Secretary or any two (2) directors.

5.3 Notice. Special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held upon four (4) days' notice by first-class mail or forty-eight (48) hours' notice delivered personally or by telephone, including a voice messaging system or other system and technology designed to record and communicate messages, facsimile, electronic mail, or other electronic means, to each director at his or her address as shown on the records of this corporation or, if it is not shown on the records and it is not readily ascertainable, at the place at which meetings of the directors are regularly held. Notice of a meeting need not be given to any director who signed a waiver of notice or a written consent to holding the meeting or an approval of the minutes thereof, whether before or after the meeting, or who attends the meeting without protesting, prior thereto or at its commencement, the lack of notice to such director. All such waivers, consents and approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made part of the minutes of the meetings. The business to be transacted at the meeting needs to be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting, unless specifically required by law or by these Bylaws.

5.4 Quorum and Adjournment. A majority of the number of directors authorized by these Bylaws shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board of Directors. A majority of the directors present, whether or not a quorum is present, may adjourn the meeting for twenty-four (24) hours or less without further notice. If the meeting is adjourned for more than twenty-four hours, notice of any adjournment to another time or place shall be given prior to the time of the adjourned meeting to the directors who were not present at the time of the adjournment.

5.5 Manner of Acting. Every action taken or decision made by a majority of the directors present at a duly held meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors, unless the act of a different number is required by law, the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws. A meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to transact business, despite the withdrawal of directors, if any action taken or decision made is approved by at least a majority of the required quorum for that meeting. Members of the Board of Directors may participate in a meeting through the use of conference telephone, electronic video screen communication or similar communication equipment, as long as all directors participating in the meeting can hear one another. All such directors shall be deemed to be present in person at such meeting.

5.6 Action Without a Meeting of the Board of Directors. Any action that the Board of Directors is required or permitted to take may be taken without a meeting if all members of the Board of Directors consent in writing to the action; provided, however, that the consent of any director who has a material financial interest in a transaction to which the corporation is a party and who is an “interested director” as defined in Section 5233 of the CNCL shall not be required for approval of that transaction. Such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as any other validly approved action of the board. All such consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE 6 COMMITTEES

6.1 Committees of Directors. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the number of directors then in office, provided a quorum is present, may form one or more committees as it deems appropriate to expedite the work, to undertake detailed study of areas of concern and to make appropriate recommendations to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall have the power to prescribe the manner in which proceedings of any such committee shall be conducted. In the absence of any such prescription, such committee shall have the power to prescribe the manner in which the proceedings shall be conducted. Unless the Board or such committee shall otherwise provide, the regular and special meetings and other actions of any such committee shall be governed by the provisions of Article five (5) of this Bylaws applicable to meetings and actions of the Board of Directors. Persons who are not directors may be asked to serve on any board committee but only elected directors may be counted in determining a quorum or a voting majority necessary to carry a proposal measure.

6.2 Limitations. The committees, to the extent provided in the resolution of the Board of Directors, shall have the authority of the Board of Directors except with respect to: (a) the approval of any action for which the CNCL also requires approval of the Board of Directors; (b) the filling of vacancies on the Board of Directors or on any committee which has the authority of the Board of Directors; (c) the fixing of compensation of the directors for serving on the Board of Directors or on any committee; (d) the amendment and repeal of Bylaws or the adoption of new Bylaws; (e) the amendment or repeal of any resolution of the Board of Directors which by its express terms is not so amendable or repealable; (f) the appointment of committees of the Board of Directors or the members thereof; (g) the expenditure of corporate funds to support nominee for director after there are more people nominated for director than can be elected; or (h) the approval of any self dealing transaction as defined in Section 5233 of the CNCL or any successor section thereto, except as provided by law.

6.3 Executive Committee. The Executive Committee shall be composed of: the Executive Director, the Treasurer, the Secretary, and the chairs of each of the standing committees. The Executive Committee shall act for the Board of Directors in matters of general supervision of the corporation and in matters requiring emergency action and arising out of an inability of the Board of Directors to meet in required quorum in regular or special session. Emergency actions taken by the committee shall be transmitted in writing to the Board of Directors within ten (10) working days. If five (5) or more Directors request reconsideration of the emergency action they must do so in writing to the Secretary of the Board of Directors within five working days of the date of notification of the Executive Committee action. The matter will then be placed on the agenda for a special meeting or the next scheduled meeting of the full Board of Directors.

6.4 Financial Affairs Committee. The Financial Affairs Committee is composed of two designated members of the Board of Directors and other financial experts and will work cooperatively and closely with the Treasurer of the corporation. The Financial Affairs Committee is charged with the responsibility of selecting the most appropriate investments, if any, for the corporation, managing those investments, and evaluating overall growth of the corporation's funds.

6.5 Resources Development Committee. The Resources Development Committee is composed of at least two designated members of the Board of Directors and other individuals and will work cooperatively and closely with the Treasurer of the corporation. The Resources Development Committee is responsible for collecting donations from private individuals and corporate donors, maintaining the appropriate records and receipts, sending acknowledgment letters to donors on a quarterly basis, and creating an effective endowment development strategy to ever increase the endowment of the corporation. The Committee will also be responsible for development and execution of all fundraising activities, including, but not limited to, the promotion, production, and repetition of an annual or semi-annual fundraising event to attract individual and corporate sponsors.

6.6 Meetings and action of Committees. Meetings and actions of committees of the Board of Directors shall be governed by, held, and taken in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws concerning meetings and other Board of Directors actions, except that the time for regular meetings of such committees and the calling of special meetings of such committees may be determined either by board resolution or, if there is none, by resolution of the committee of the Board of Directors. Minutes of each meeting of any committee of the Board of Directors shall be kept and shall be filed with the corporate records. The Board of Directors may adopt rules for the government of any committee, provided that they are consistent with these bylaws or, in the absence of rules adopted by the Board of Directors, the committee may adopt such rules.

ARTICLE 7 OFFICERS

7.1 Officers. The officers of the corporation shall be an Executive Director, a Secretary, a Chief Financial Officer who shall be designated the Treasurer and such other officers with such titles and duties as shall be determined by the Board of Directors. Any resignation shall be without prejudice to the rights, if any, of the corporation under any contract to which the officer is a party if such contract had previously been approved or ratified by the Board of Directors.

7.5 Vacancies. A vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification, or any other cause shall be filled by the Board of Directors.

7.6 Chairman of the Board of Directors. If a chairman of the Board of Directors is elected, he or she shall preside at meetings of the board and shall exercise and perform such other powers and duties as the Board of Directors may assign from time to time. If applicable, the Executive Director shall preside at all meetings of the members. Except as otherwise expressly provided by law, by the Articles of Incorporation, or by these Bylaws, he or she shall, in the name of the corporation, execute such deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts, checks, or other instruments which may from time to time be authorized by the Board of Directors.

7.8 Secretary. The Secretary shall keep or cause to be kept, at the corporation's principal office in California or such other place as the Board of Directors may direct, a corporate records binder containing the original, or a copy of the articles of incorporation and bylaws, as amended to date, and minutes of all meetings, proceedings, and actions of the board and of committees of the board. The minutes of meetings shall include the time and place that the meeting was held, whether the meeting was annual, regular or special, and if special, how authorized, the notice given and the names of those present at board and committee meetings.

The Secretary shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the Board and of committees of the Board required by these Bylaws to be given. He shall perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Treasurer, The Board of Directors, or the Executive Director.

7.10 Compensation. The salaries of the officers, if any, shall be fixed from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors, and no officer shall be prevented from receiving such salary by reason of the fact that he or she is also a director of the corporation, provided, however, that such compensation paid a director for serving as an officer of this corporation shall only be allowed if permitted under the provisions of these Bylaws. Payments authorized hereunder include amounts paid and expenses incurred in settling any such proceeding.
