

Calendar 2020: Active or Planning Remote Involvement. Request an Email Invite!

Volunteer to help provide FREE art-making opportunities for all ages (all expertise levels needed).
Provide feedback or time by joining us and you can claim another chance to win great prizes!

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
2–3pm Remote Programs Planning Meeting Active!	2–4pm Remote Art Lessons for Kids K–8 th grade Planning	2–4pm Remote Art Lessons for Teens (& Mature Kids) Active!		2–3pm Remote Programs Planning Meeting Active!	1:30–2:30pm Bi-weekly Remote Art Lessons for Veterans & Friends Active!	2–3pm Remote Art Critique, Coaching, Apprenticeship By Appointment!

Active! ArtSeed Fine Arts Summer Intensive – Weekdays, July 6–24, 2020, 9 a.m.–5 p.m. This structured schedule of live, slide, and video remote activities are designed for ages 9 to 19 (younger is ok with parent supervision). This hybrid virtual & in situ workshop/seminar develops individual portfolios and collaborative projects. Develop work to submit to competitions or for exhibition with ArtSeed. Outdoor art-making with safety equipment and distancing can be arranged by appointment. ArtSeed’s Presidio Work Spaces will display actual and scanned-and-sent-from-home works-in-progress. Planning via video conference: Sundays, 2–3 p.m.; Thursdays, 2–3 p.m. Visit www.artseed.org or Call Josefa: 415-656-9849.

Active Art-making! ArtSeed Exhibition: *Only Zombies Race to Mass Extinction! Students and artists are exploring climate change topics: Early Signs and Interventions; Natural Wonders and Disasters; Technology and Stewardship. Teaching artists, guest presenters, and adult volunteers will have their art featured alongside Intensive students’ in an online and in-place exhibition, Sept 3 – Oct 3 in the Presidio. Opening Reception, 5–7 p.m., Thursday, September 3, and Closing Reception, 3–5 p.m., Saturday, October 3, 2020. Staggered and ticketed entry times, local law permitting, and with virtual options) Video conference planning meetings active: Thursdays, 2–3 p.m. China Brotsky and Seed Galleries, Tides Converge, 1007 General Kennedy Ave., Presidio, SF.

By Appointment! Remote Art Coaching, Critique and Apprenticeships – Portfolio-building for artists of all ages and levels of expertise. Apprenticeships and coaching in the practice of classical or experimental visual arts techniques. The highest grade materials are recommended but many materials can be found at home in your kitchen, bathroom, and vanity. No one turned away for lack of funds. Via video conference. Saturdays, 2–3 p.m.

Active! Remote Art Lessons for Teens – Tuesdays, 2–4 p.m.

Active! Remote Veterans Workshops – Bi-weekly, Fridays, 1:30–2:30 p.m., S.F. Department of Veterans Affairs Psychosocial Rehabilitation & Recovery Center art group formerly led by the late Ann Reesman and Swords to Plowshares Veterans Academy in the Presidio.

Active Planning Remote Art Lessons for Kids – K–8th grade students, Mondays, 2–4 p.m.

Planning Remote Preschool Art Lessons, Mondays, 11 a.m.–12 p.m.

ArtSeed’s classical and cutting edge activist art projects connect gifted and vulnerable communities.

Made possible in part by the CA Arts Council, The Sam Mazza Foundation,
Tina Cervin, David Gavrich & Chris Hiller and Tony & Caroline Grant.

Individual donations of all sizes, plus gifts of time and expertise from friends like you, have been essential to our success.

THANK YOU!

Josefa Vaughan, email: josefa@artseed.org, text or voice: 415-656-9849
P.O. Box 29277, San Francisco, CA 94129, www.artseed.org

