

Bibliography

ArtSeed's 20 years of annual themes have always provided young people and the public a forum to discuss difficult subject matter especially as related to social justice and racism. For the past 5 years, ArtSeed art projects have focused specifically on stories played down or left out of most accepted versions of American history. Ideas for ArtSeed projects often grow out of books we have read. Here is a Selected Bibliography of works that have influenced both the founding of ArtSeed and its projects for more than twenty years:
