Hello All!

Happy spring! When my friend Luned Palmer lived in San Francisco she was an inspiring influence and an integral part of ArtSeed. She recently described her experience with us this way: "It's where I learned to share art-making with children and learned about spreading joy and magic through art to all people! I moved away from San Francisco 12 years ago, but ArtSeed still holds a place dear to my heart. You may be familiar with the annual Art-a-thon, a fundraising drive to help ArtSeed with their amazing summer camp, teen partnerships, and prolific art-making experiences for veterans, seniors, children, and more!"

The Art-a-thon has transformed over the years, and this year a direct donation, either via post or online, will help us the most. Will you please join me in supporting ArtSeed again this spring? If you send a check, (payable to ArtSeed, to P.O. Box 29277, San Francisco, CA 94129) you have the option to dedicate your gift to someone by placing their name and contact info in the memo section. Is there a free spot on your or your loved one's fridge? Our supporters, and those they honor with a donation, often get surprise art in the mail!

Is online giving more your style? Then click the "Donate" button at the top of our homepage (or place this link, <https://donatenow.networkforgood.org/1315715> in your browser) to make your donation online. Look for the "Special Purpose" prompt at the end of this Network for Good form where you have the option to dedicate your online gift to someone. This also helps ArtSeed participants track their sources of support. You can follow their progress in the Art-a-thon by visiting the Leader List sidebar of our homepage (or scroll down on your phone) at www.artseed.org. This is also where you can click on their names to see what participants have been doing. Let us know if you want us to add a name to that Art-a-thon Race Leader List!

By doing any of this, you will have helped ArtSeed transition from "creativity endurance" mode to "creativity assurance" mode. We have endured enough these past two years! Now seems to be the time to pace ourselves for the long haul, gathering in person by appointment 2-4 p.m., Saturdays and online 4-5 p.m., Tuesdays to assure communing safely and creative continuity into the wild and woolly future.

Thank you very much for considering a donation. Please enjoy our drawings: Luned's loving octopus and dancing dragon plus my rendering of our growing ArtSeed family. ☺
