We're in The Presidio!

P.O. Box 29277, San Francisco, CA 94129-0277

Dear Neighbor,

I am writing to ask you to contribute a Gift Certificate that we can use as a prize to reward ArtSeed participants who have worked the hardest to make ArtSeed's Art-a-thon fundraising season a success. A unique, volunteer-based 501(c)(3) non-profit arts education organization, ArtSeed connects youth and Veterans from diverse backgrounds with mentoring artists who foster their appreciation for art and nature, provide them with tools for developing a new discipline, and offer them social connections that build their hope for a brighter future. This we do through year-round projects that explore links between classical and cutting-edge fine arts disciplines.

ArtSeed's annual fundraising drive supports scholarships to ArtSeed Summer programs. This includes both online and in-person workshops, studio residencies, and exhibition opportunities. Participants have access to our Presidio WorkSpaces and our Hunters Point studio where they learn practical skills while exploring the arts with mentors and they engage with an ever-expanding community of artists. Gift Certificates and other prizes help us build incentives for artists, Veterans, and children to stick with the work it takes to pursue their goals during challenging times.

To show our appreciation for your generosity, we will recognize you on our website, email blasts, and social media, along with some printed material related to ArtSeed's activities throughout the year. You can find detailed information and updates on ArtSeed's charitable programs and opportunities to sponsor an artist or make an in-kind donation on our website, www.artseed.org.

We are very grateful to members of our community like you who have made so much possible with caring support all the years since 2000! Your help with our mission will be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

Josefa Vaughan,
Executive Director

ArtSeed is a volunteer-based, tax-exempt non-profit organization under Internal Revenue Code 501(c)(3) and Revenue and Tax Code 27301d. Our mission is to connect the most resourceful and gifted with the youngest and most vulnerable citizens of the San Francisco Bay Area and beyond through classical and cutting edge fine arts disciplines. Your charitable contribution to ArtSeed, made without expectation of material benefit, is therefore tax-deductible to the full extent of the law. Our Employer Identification Number is 52-2368513.

Tips for making this ArtSeed fundraiser a success:

Tell your story.

How does art education benefit you and your community?

How has ArtSeed made an impact in your life?

Get Excited

Write down why you are excited about the Art-a-thon. If you are passionate about your participation in ArtSeed, then your excitement will spread to those ready to listen and they may sponsor you. Think about what projects you will be doing on the day of the Art-a-thon. Tell them about all the exciting things happening on Saturday, April 22, 2023, noon – 6 p.m.

Networking

Make a list of potential sponsors you would like to approach in your networks. This includes friends and family, schools, local businesses, art-minded organizations, local neighborhood businesses, organizations you're involved in. Think about the best promotional resources (listed: far right column) to use when approaching people.

Stress Opportunity Over Need

Remember the opportunity you are offering: You are inviting your sponsors to feel great about partnering with you to make a difference in the lives of other, less fortunate children. You are practicing enrollment, a vital tool for any field of endeavor!

Ways to Make Contact

ArtSeed website.

All the information someone would need about the Art-a-thon is at www.artseed.org as well as important information about the organization.

The Facebook factor. Connect with your friends and family on Facebook by inviting them to sponsor you or to participate in the event. You can post a link to www.ArtSeed.org (for online donations) on Facebook too. Get them to "like" us! This way people can be updated with Art-a-thon news and stay connected with ArtSeed in the future. Keep people up-to-date on Twitter as well.

Write a persuasive email. Write a personal email which can be sent to many people. Think of simple ways to personalize it. Cut and paste to save time. You don't have to reinvent the wheel for each email.

Make a call, set up a meeting. In the age of texting and email, it never hurts to meet people in person, or to talk to them on the phone. This may be an excuse to reconnect with someone you don't have a chance to talk to very often. Let them know that you also want to catch up with how things are going with them.

Be Prepared

In the weeks before the event, always keep some sponsor pledge sheets and some post cards with you so you can catch contact info and keep track of, potential sponsors. Only you can let us know if you have pledges. Online, sponsors can only make donations in your name (not pledges).

Promotional Resources

Online: www.artseed.org, Facebook, Twitter, Flickr, YouTube.

Print: Postcards, flyers, schedule of events, ArtSeed brochures, other ArtSeed PR information you may have received in an email, etc.

People: If you or your sponsors have questions call Josefa at 415-656-9849.

Artwork: Show prospective sponsors what you have made and let them know that your work will be on display following the Art-a-thon.

Fundraising Goals

Set an amount you want to raise. Give yourself an amount to work toward. Still, keep it fun. Any amount you raise will be appreciated.
