P.O. Box 29277,
San Francisco, CA 94129

This in-person camp is led by experienced teaching artists and distinguished guests. It gives highly-motivated children, and youth, opportunities to learn both experimental and traditional fine arts skills, showcased in a public exhibition. They will also be invited to ask questions, and express concerns over controversial topics through writing and media such as drawing, painting, printmaking, collage, clay, and photography.

Schedule: Monday – Saturday, July 10 – 15, 10 a.m. – 3 p.m.
Six students ages 8 to 18, after parent/guardian interviews.

- Our trained volunteers provide a high adult-to-youth ratio;
- Field trip to museums, galleries, and/or artist studios;
- Scholarships and supplies available to those in need!
- Fun portfolio building and collaborative activities with selections featured in ArtSeed’s Annual Exhibition in the Presidio’s Tides Converge galleries and in ArtSeed’s Michelle Vignes Virtual Gallery.
